

MASSACHUSETTS ADVOCATES FOR CHILDREN (MAC) AND THE BOSTON SPECIAL EDUCATION TRANSITION PROJECT (B-SET)

A leader in children's advocacy since 1969, MAC provides information on transition through our helpline and our trainings and provides legal representation for a limited number of low-income families. In addition, they created the B-SET (Boston Special Education Transition) Project to provide advocacy resources to Boston families and transition-age youth.

Transition & Adult Services Resource Fair

Sponsored by the Kennedy Day School - April 10, 2015

Welcome to the Transition and Adult Services Resource Fair sponsored by the Kennedy Day School at Franciscan Hospital for Children. It gives us great pleasure to organize this event in order to assist families and transition professionals in making important connections. Whether you are looking for programs or services for now or in the future, the resource professionals available to you today will be available to assist you in making informed decisions.

It is always rewarding to put people in touch with others who can contribute to making a difference in the life of an individual. We hope you enjoy speaking with the variety of exhibitors who are here today. If we, at the Kennedy Day School, can be of any assistance to you please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
